

Changing Employment Marie Curie ITN

Doctoral Summer School
Flexicurity, Labour Markets
and Social Dialogue

At KU Leuven, Belgium
3 - 6 June 2014

Tackling the major issues in employment in Europe

Work in a multidisciplinary environment alongside early-stage researchers and more established academics from around Europe on the pressing issues in employment relations within three distinct themes:

- Theme 1: Management and Employees
- Theme 2: Inclusion and Exclusion
- Theme 3: Employee Wellbeing and Work-Life Quality

4-day residential course in the international student city of Leuven

This unique summer school is particularly aimed at:

- Graduate/doctoral students working on issues of flexicurity and social dialogue
- Researchers at institutions connected to the ChangingEmployment Network
- Junior research and teaching staff at the KU Leuven, Faculty of Social Sciences

PUBLIC EVENT ON THURSDAY 5 JUNE

Round table:

Speakers on the roundtable will address the following central questions:

- What are the real prospects for labour markets and employment in Europe?
- How can European labour markets be socially sustainable?
- Is reconciliation between the security and flexibility of work key to Europe's success?
- Is social dialogue a mechanism for seeking recovery in Europe?
- Have social partners enough willingness to engage in social dialogue and what can social dialogue do during periods of economic and social difficulties?

For more information on the full programme, schedule, accommodation and registration of the Summer School and/or the round table of Thursday 5 June:

www.kuleuven.be/summercourses/ChangingEmployment

Faculty of Social Sciences

KU Leuven. Inspiring the outstanding.