

ChangingEmployment

Final Colloquium: Policy/social impact of changing employment

Event Guide:

This final event of the Changing Employment Initial Training Network will be fully devoted to dissemination and outreach of its research activities.

The Marie Curie Fellows will present their work in three debates focused around the network theme subjects -

- Management and Employees Relations
- Inclusion and Exclusion at Work
- Employee Wellbeing and Work Life Quality

External contributors will be invited as discussants to the debate, including Professor Miguel Martinez, University of Manchester Business School and Dr Frances Pine, Department of Anthropology, Goldsmiths University of London.

Venue:

Friday 4 November 2016
09:00 - 17:00

Salle Somville
1st floor - S Building
Campus du Solbosche
Université libre de Bruxelles
44 avenue Jeanne
1050 Brussels (map)

Audience:

Practitioners, policymakers and researchers interested in how European labour markets and economies are evolving.

Benefits of attending:

Learn about the latest research findings from each of the three theme groups.

Engage with a diverse group of European researchers, policymakers and practitioners whose work is concerned with understanding and shaping European labour markets and economies.
